

01 SIXTIES DESIGN by Philippe Garner (Taschen/Tower Books $44.95). Here's the classic pop reprint we had to have. It pins down the power pop experience, the hypermarket of creativity that was the sixties. And we can eyeball fuchsia with magenta, kelly green, gloss white, and marvels by Joe Colombo, Paco Rabanne and Archizoom. Absorb the experience through the words of Garner and Ettore Sottsass. Sottsass caught the zeitgeist as it played up and out in London and wrote this crucial essay Whipped Cream Memoirs, first published in Domus magazine in 1967.
