Want to know what made Grandpop the man he is? It was the men's magazines he read, which were packed with stories about swingers, sex slaves and gang bangs. Dian Hanson's History of Men's Magazines Vol. 1 and Vol. 2 are coffee-table books that celebrate the mags in all their lurid glory, from 1900 to 1957. Pictured: a shot from a 1950s French rag. The books are available for $50 at taschen.com.
