

SPA BOOKING

As testament to the power of the spa, publisher TASCHEN has just produced a lifestyle book on the subject. Spa features a selection of historical, thermal, thalassic, resort, new age, adventure, day and hotel spas around the world. As well as the sort of luscious glossy photos that might be expected of a Taschen publication, there is also information about service, pricing and how to contact everyone featured. The author is Allison Arieff, Editor-in-Chief of Dwell magazine.
