

'I want the best workout my body ever had ... I want Jazzercise!'

If you want to be fit, look great and have fun getting in shape, join a Jazzercise class today. No other dance exercise program is like the original Jazzercise. We have expertly trained instructors and a constant supply of new, imaginative routines.

- No contracts to sign—pay monthly or per class
- Join anytime
- Combines the best of aerobics plus a well-rounded workout
- Great for men and women of all ages
- Affordable prices—one of the finest fitness values available

Join the class nearest you.

CALL TOLL FREE:

1-800-FIT-IS-IT

In California, 1-800-962-9200
In Canada, contact local instructors.

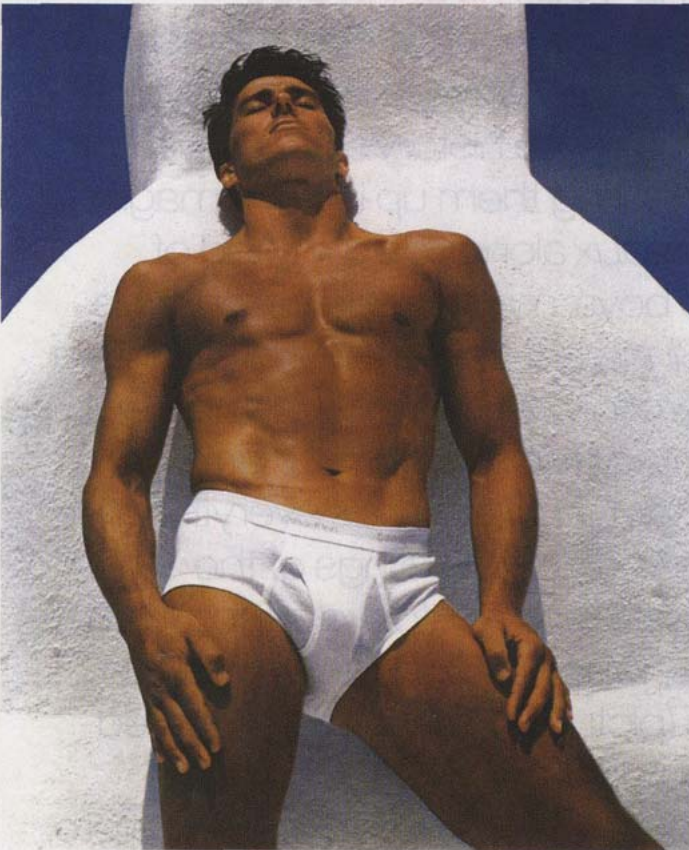

Judi Sheppard Missett's
Jazzercise
"The Original. The Best. The Leader."

ONE FREE CLASS
GET FIT. STAY FIT
AND HAVE FUN
BRING THIS COUPON AND RECEIVE ONE FREE CLASS
This offer is only for new Jazzercise students.
Good at participating studios through March 31, 2005.

DYNASTY
abc WEDNESDAYS

Calvin Klein Underwear

12 gaytimes

WE STILL LOVE... 80s' ADS

WE JUST can't get enough of the 80s. Five years ago, we may have laughed into our Evisu jeans if you even mentioned the words "leg warmers" and "style icon" in the same breath, but in these heady days of terrorist threats, G8 summits and famine, suddenly all those shoulder-pad mistakes and big hair seem like a welcome dose of light relief. That's why All American Ads of the 80s is the equivalent of catching Ab Fab on repeat when you've just been dumped. If your heart warms with nostalgia at the memory of those many Calvin Klein underwear ads (and your mum finding them under the pillow), baggy acid-wash jeans and Tiffany, or if you still think Knight Rider, Barbra Streisand's Memories album (when she still had the nose), and break dancing are totally awesome, then this book is for you. ■ All American Ads of the 80s, published by Taschen, £19.99

www.gaytimes.co.uk