

Tom's Boys

Tom Of Finland's men will step on Paris Hilton's Chihuahua and snap its neck. They're hotter than anyone you'll meet at the bar this week. They're also not going to give you a lot of shit about "cuddling" or "feelings" or "communication." They're there to, quite simply, please you. And now they're gathered up in five 192-page volumes of Tom Of Finland: The Comic Collection ($39.99, Taschen). The whole set very appropriately sits in a black leather display box. —RD
