

Indulge in Da Vinci

Art enthusiasts start saving now, for the most comprehensive collection of Leonardo da Vinci's drawings has just hit the shelves.

The 696-page volume, titled Leonardo da Vinci - The Complete Paintings and Drawings, written by Professor Frank Zöllner and Johannes Nathan, is the most comprehensive book dedicated to the artist. Full-bleed reproductions of Leonardo's drawings allow the reader to get closer to his work than ever before.

■ Priced at £100, the book is in shops now. For more information, visit www.taschen.com.

A Milan. According to a survey carried out last month, it is the 11th most expensive in the world. Rome came 17th. London third and Tokyo first