

Old world: This hefty baroque atlas explores the world as it was in 1665 in maps of bright, authentic character. Atlas Maior of 1665 (Taschen) by mapmaker Joan Blaeu and with text by Peter van der Krogt brings the old world up close for a scholarly look, examining the world comprehensively as it was seen 350 years ago. The craftily reprinted maps are stunning and vibrant, and put into historical and cultural context by scholar van der Krogt. For information: taschen.com.

PRICE: $200.