

FASHION FOREVER

Three cheers for the uber-groovy folk at Taschen. Why? Because, with magazine i-D, they have produced an indispensable bible of the current flock of global "must-know" designers. In Fashion Now 2, big brands sit next to barely known names, which sit next to sportswear brands and big denim labels. There's background on each label and an interview with the designer(s). With beautiful campaign photos (like the Prada one, above) and backstage pics, this is a worthy addition to any coffee table. Collect more of these kinds of books over the years so you can look back and appreciate the cultural position of top designers. Call Boffins on (08) 9321 5755.
