The '70s was the last decade to produce a whole string of films that are now considered classics, and in this overview the author examines over 100 (mostly American) movies, among them such landmarks as Get Carter, Klute, Jaws, Cabaret, The Exorcist, Star Wars, Taxi Driver and Alien.

In fact, pretty much every title evokes vivid memories thanks to the informative and entertaining text, though it is the dazzling pictures that are the real stars. A lush coffee table item, guaranteed to make your peepers go jeepers! Also available, and equally lavish: Movies of the 80s (same price, author and rating). ★★☆☆
