

heaven to hell

By David LaChapelle
Taschen, hardback and boxed, 344 pages, £39.99, ISBN 978-3-8228-2572-3

Fans of David LaChapelle's provocative images will be delighted by the arrival of this extensive and lusciously produced finale to his book trilogy. The production values of the monograph - which include a box - are excessive, reflecting the decadence in pictures highly charged with LaChapelle's signature eroticism and obsession with celebrity. The glitz and glamour of superstardom are combined with a slick and gaudy fantastical world that alludes to aspects of the 'surreal'. However, in the end this is nothing more than a fine collection of accomplished fashion and celebrity shots.
