

the new erotic photography

Edited by Dian Hanson & Eric Kroll
Taschen, hardback, 608 pages, £29.99 ISBN: 978-3-8228-4924-8

This book shows Taschen doing what it does best - showcasing some of the world's finest, provocative, racy and erotic photography. It's an extensive volume packed with sexually charged images by 82 photographers, including Ralph Gibson, Jan Sudek and Terry Richardson, plus a host of lesser known, but accomplished, practitioners. It is dedicated to the late Bob Carlos Clarke, who is quoted as saying, 'What turns me on? Armpits, cognac truffles and small brightly coloured birds.' However, if you are offended by imagery that could arguably be associated with pornography, many of the pictures in this book will not be to your liking.
