

2255

p.60

STRIKE A POSE: Scarlett Johansson, from Mario Testino, Let Me In. Right: The photog with Drew Barrymore.

TASTE OF TESTINO

You know you're as A-list as your A-list subjects when Nicole Kidman writes the foreword to your coffee-table tome. The actress is just one of a hundred-plus celebs who appear in Mario Testino, Let Me In, out this month from Taschen. Glitzier than a Vegas showgirl, the limited-edition book ($100 per copy, signed and numbered) features behind-the-scenes shots taken by the London-based Testino as he hopped from private party to premiere to hotel suite during his 30-year career. Catch a glimpse of Demi and Ashton messing around in bed, or sneak a peek at Colin Farrell lighting up in little more than a towel. We asked the jet- and trend-setting lensman which L.A. locales he always hits when visiting his fancy Hollywood friends.

CANT-MISS MORNING JAVA: I gave up coffee, but love the Beverly Hills Juice Club
PREFERRED "LET'S DO LUNCH" RESTAURANT: Ammo MUST-STOP SHOP: South Willard BEST PLACE TO CATCH A MOVIE: New Beverly Cinema TREASURED OFF-THE-BEATEN-PATH DINNER SPOT: Loteria Grill in the Farmers Market