

FEATURING: Shilpa Shetty, Will Self, the truth about Parisian women, and why Google is watching you

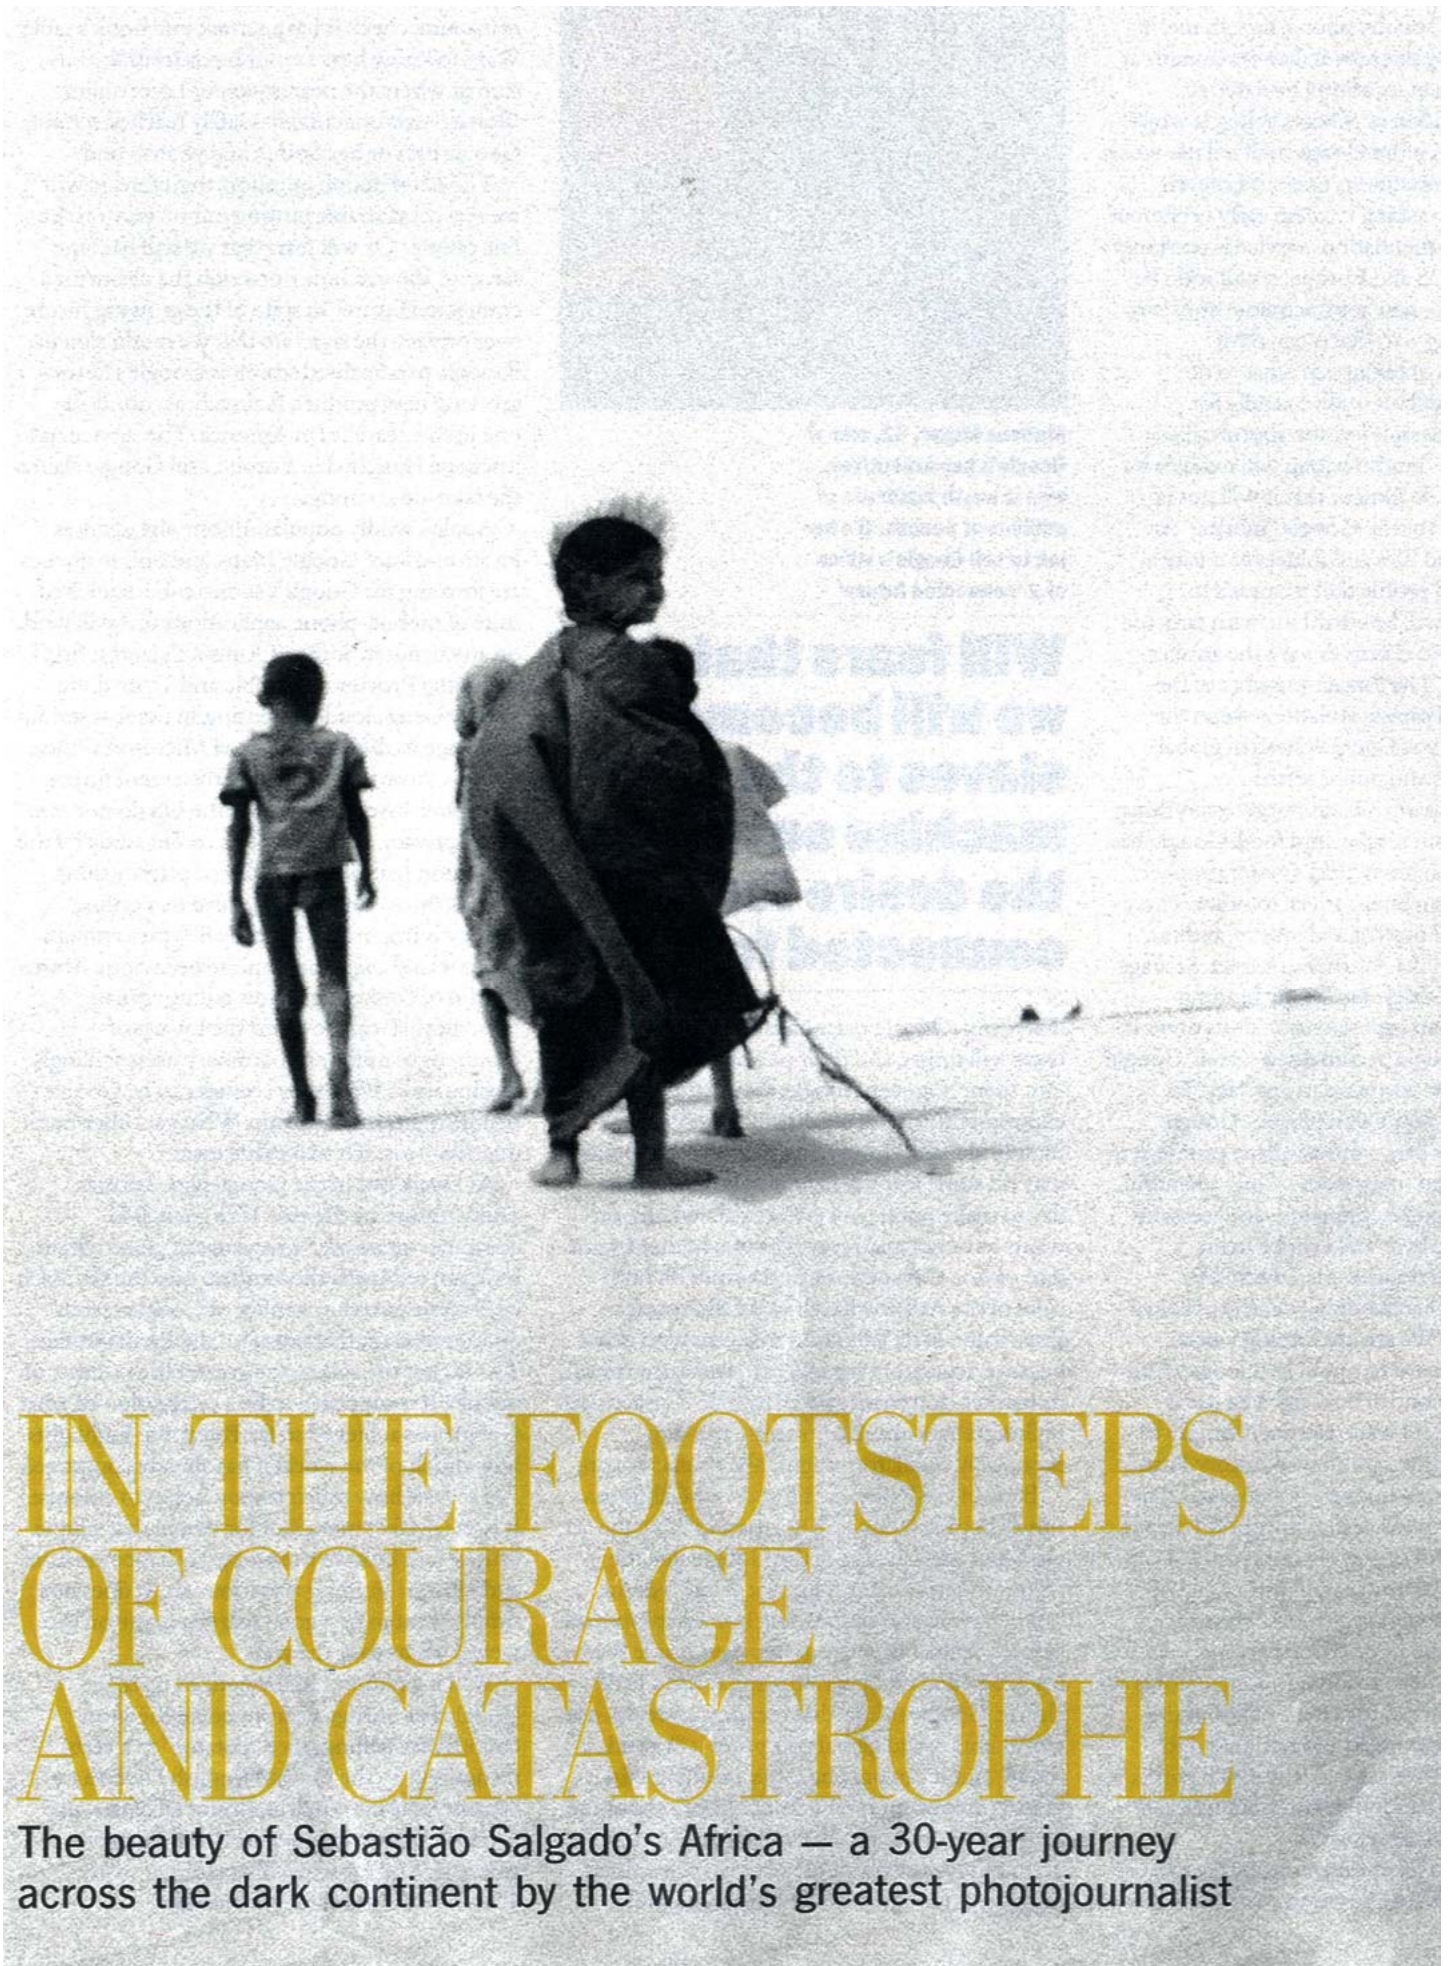

THE SUNDAYTIMES magazine

October 21, 2007

LOOKING AFRICA IN THE FACE

The haunting, tragic beauty of Sebastião Salgado's journey into the heart of the dark continent

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF COURAGE AND CATASTROPHE

The beauty of Sebastião Salgado's Africa — a 30-year journey across the dark continent by the world's greatest photojournalist

Top: Hutu refugees gather at Kibeho camp, Rwanda, on their return from Zaire and Burundi, 1995

Left: Rwandan refugees near Lula, Zaire, in 1997

Above: orphans in Goma, Zaire, in 1994

Selected images from Sebastião Salgado's project Genesis will be exhibited at Hackelbury Fine Art, 4 Launceston Place, London W8, from November 10 until January 26, 2008. For more information visit www.hackelbury.co.uk or tel: 020 7937 8688.

Africa, by Sebastião Salgado (Taschen, £39.99), with photographs selected by Salgado himself and text by Mia Couto, is out tomorrow. It is available at the BooksFirst price of £35.99, inc. postage and packing. Tel: 0870 165 8585

ALL IMAGES © SEBASTIÃO SALGADO/AMAZONAS/REPICTURES

56