

Legendary London venues

32 Time Out London November 14 – 20 2007

Andy Summers' photograph taken from the stage at Wembley Arena, 1983 – is that really Glenn Hoddle in the left-hand corner of the photo?

Wembley Arena

Andy Summers, guitarist, The Police 'Wembley Arena was a big deal for us [The Police played in December 1983]. We all lived in London so it was seen as one of those iconic gigs you'd never have dreamt of playing when you first started out. We play so many different countries, but coming back to London we really want it to be good. I remember London venues with fondness. We played in a few toilets here, but The Lyceum down by the Strand comes to mind – that used to be a great gig. And The Roundhouse I always remember, too. They're historical landmarks now.'

Wembley Arena, Arena Square, Engineers Way, Middx (020 8782 5500/www.whatsonwembley.com). 'I'll Be Watching You', a book of Andy Summers' photographs with The Police 1980-'83, is published by Taschen, priced £24.99.