BUNKER SPRECKELS – SURFING'S DIVINE PRINCE OF DECADENCE BY ART BREWER & CR STECYK III

BOOK

Not many of us could invent a female-baiting alter-ego called 'The Player' and get away with it, but Adolph B Spreckels – Clark Gable's stepson, former heir to a million-dollar fortune and champion surfer – was one such man. This fascinating read from coffee-table-tome specialist Taschen outlines the international playboy with extensive photography and a revealing interview, which goes behind the debauchery and wipeouts that lead up to his untimely death in 1977, aged just 27. It also packs in German and French translations for aspiring multi-linguists.
