

Design Now, a new book published this month by Taschen UK, showcases recent work by 90 of the world's leading designers and design-led manufacturers. An in-depth study of contemporary design practice, it has an emphasis on sustainable approaches to product and environmental design. The front cover features Zaha Hadid's Vortexx chandelier.