Photographer gets glamour models to pose for new book 'because of their feet'

ED FOX

Glamour From The Ground Up

Taschen, £25

Ed Fox was the first photographer to train his lens on diminutive sex mannequin Dita von Teese and fabulously enthusiastic porn star Tera Patrick. Despite their more obvious attributes, it was their feet that attracted him.

"A beautiful foot is an extra, the same as shapely breasts or a nice ass," he says. "It's about voluptuousness, the feminine shape."

Dita and Tera star alongside Brittany Andrews and Kelly Madison in this, his very first book. We could have done without the hour-long DVD and its original musical score but spent many pleasurable hours poring over the rest of the content – most of which is unprintable in a family magazine.
