From the leaders in arts and photography books comes some affordable inspiration in the form of a series of style books focusing on some of the most visually and culturally rich places in the world. The series includes Indian Style, Mexico Style, New York Style, Paris Style, Provence Style, Seaside Style, Tuscany Style, and London Style. The London book is a tour of our vibrant capital, dipping into the eclectic homes of artists, musicians, photographers and writers, arranged progressively by colour; great for interiors inspiration, or just a bit of vicarious cool on your coffee table.
