New Paris Interiors

Following the success of the Interiors series begun 15 years ago, editor Angelika Taschen revisits Paris to provide a fresh new look into the most exciting homes in the city in the 21st century. Homes featured include those of architect India Mahdavi, French Vogue editor-in-chief Carine Roitfeld, shoe designer Christian Louboutin, fashion designer Rick Owens, designer Christian Liaigre, and many more of the city's most interesting residents. From the extravagant classical to the austere avant-garde, the homes featured highlight an array of amazing spaces that reflect French vision today. (Taschen)
