

Green Architecture

by James Wines
published by Taschen
Retail Price £7.99

A special edition of this book has been published by Taschen to celebrate its 25th anniversary. The author focuses on the relationship between construction and the environment and how the march towards carbon zero has influenced modern design. The chapter entitled Green Design

Research and Technological Innovations is particularly interesting, with examples of green buildings from across the globe.

Readerlink enquiry 151

