

New New York Interiors

Edited by Angelika Taschen, text by Peter Webster

Published by Taschen RRP $59.95

Distributed by Taschen

Available in all good bookstores

In the city that thrives on an electric force of artistic energy, where people flock to be a part of this realm that embraces and enhances creative expression, New New York Interiors is a representation of this expression, taking readers on a kaleidoscopic tour of interiors that are typically New York. Unique, edgy, classic, French inspired, it's all here within this large, wondrous and bustling city that never sleeps and where the creative energy never dies.

Take a look inside some of the design world's most revered artists, such as Vladimir Kagan and Annabelle Selldor, or be inspired by décor that reaches new levels and challenges new ways of thinking. Shifting boundaries and incorporating new and often risqué design, this is the quintessential read that will ignite inspiration and a bit of difference into your way of thinking.