Minimalism is dead. The second helping of Angelika Taschen's hand-picked interiors from the Big Apple is served, and white-on-white is out. New New York Interiors features excessive designs by some of the city's most colourful personalities. Adult entertainer Vanessa del Rio swathes her windows in leopard print. Two art-world superstars clad every inch of their apartment in plywood. New New York Interiors is the best of design and the worst of taste – but in New York excess is always best.
