

Dear diary

If you've toyed with the idea of keeping a diary but lack the discipline, or feel that your everyday life is too uneventful to document, take a look at the Simple Diary, £10 (simplediary.com). Artist Philipp Keel's innovative format takes the pressure off diary writing, providing inspiring quotes, queries and illustrations to help you navigate and record your daily life. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to reforestation projects.
