JEAN NOUVEL TASCHEN EDITION

He designed the spectacular Agbar Tower in Barcelona and the Institut du Monde Arabe in Paris. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie named their first biological child Shiloh Nouvel in homage to him. Not only is he Brangelina's fave, but one of the world's leading architects and winner of the world's most prestigious architecture award – the 2008 Pritzker Prize. Jean Nouvel's amazing work is found in his home country of France, as well as around the world in Switzerland, Spain, the United States, the United Arab Emirates and now on the coffee table. Taschen has just released the most complete overview to date of Jean Nouvel's career, including works in progress, in two 400-page books, limited to 1,000 copies and packaged in a translucent Plexiglas slipcase, all designed by the master himself.
