VON UNWERTH'S LADIES

↗ Stars, sex and arty photography – there are photographers (David LaChapelle to name one) who have made a career out of this particular combination. And it is an unbeatable one. This December will see the release of photographer Ellen von Unwerth's book Fräulein, celebrating the world's most iconic women and published by Taschen. Dita von Teese taking a bath in a huge martini glass, Claudia Schiffer in a rather pornographic struggle with a cuddly toy – among many celebrities who appear in the nude, including Britney Spears and French first lady Carla Bruni. You'll have to be quick if you want a copy – only 1 500 will be printed, all of them signed. The texts are by Ingrid Sischy, and the price is set at 500 euros. There is also an Art Edition that contains a signed, numbered piece by Unwerth, for around 1 100 euros.
