

Through the eyes of Dennis Hopper

If you're a big fan of the actor, then Dennis Hopper: Photographs 1961-1967 (Taschen, $700) will undoubtedly float your boat. It's a limited edition of 1,500 signed and numbered copies — and if that's not exclusive enough, for the Hopper completist there's the extra-special, $1,800 "Art Edition" of 100 signed and numbered copies, each accompanied by a signed, gelatin-silver print of Hopper's 1961 photo Biker Couple. During the 1960s, Hopper carried a camera everywhere and caught images of many of his friends and co-stars. He also photographed landscapes, cityscapes, film sets and street scenes. The famous faces here include Peter and Jane Fonda, Dean Martin, John Wayne, Paul Newman and Clint Eastwood. The accompanying texts, by Hopper, et al., are in English, German and French.
