Hugh Hefner's Playboy

Coffee table giants Taschen have excelled themselves with a six-volume chronicle of the man who took bunnies out of the kitchen and into the bedroom. Only 1,500 numbered copies, housed in plexiglass and signed by Hef himself, will be made. You even get a 7x7cm piece of Hef's pyjamas. Definitely one for the bachelors among you.

Hugh Hefner's Playboy costs £900. For more information, and a snapshot of the collection, go to taschen.com. Alternatively you could log on to playboy.com to experience first hand Hef's contribution to popular culture.* Remember, there are lots of interesting articles to read...
