Photographer Sante D'Orazio knows everyone in fashion, music, modeling and magazine publishing, and that is what makes photo-diary-scrapbooks like his Barely Private such a joy. In them we get to see behind-the-scenes at photo shoots, inside exotic homes and flats, and celebrities we know trying on new faces for his lens. Those new faces might be created for a specific pose, or the natural ones they wear every day. Featured are Jay-Z, Mickey Rourke, Angelina Jolie, Penélope Cruz, Helmut Newton and an updated look for Brooke Shields, who poses for the cover in a shot that will definitely stop a few cars.
