This vast and far-reaching coffee table book summons the finest photographers of the past 100 years and shows them off expertly over its 400-plus luxurious pages.

Arranged alphabetically, it takes on the sense of an encyclopaedia, featuring every major photographer of the 20th century, including the likes of Julius Shulman, Terry Richardson, Cindy Sherman, Mario Testino, Warhol, Helmut Newton and David LaChapelle.

Photographers A-Z is the kind of book that you can lose hours in, and features everything from portraiture of the rich and famous to robust, rough-and-ready photo-journalism and war correspondence. All in all, simply stunning.
