La Petite Mort thinks we should celebrate the ladies getting their rocks off, and photographer 'Santillo' has snapped hundreds of women enjoying a bit of 'me time'. Shot in a variety of places, with arty, sepia, voyeuristic photography, it does also feature some terrifyingly large dildos that make you wonder if it won't be long before women decide they can dispense with the bloke who moans about football forever, and replace us with a sex robot for good.

La Petite Mort: Female Masturbation, Fantasies & Orgasm by Will Santillo, Dian Hanson, Dian Hanson, £27.99 (Taschen)
