The photographic work of Inez van Lamsweerde and Vinoodh Matadin are collected in the new two volume book set, Inez van Lamsweerde – Vinoodh Matadin: Pretty Much Everything, available now from Taschen. 666 (yes, a strange number) photographic works, “pretty much everything” they have done over two decades are collected in the book set, published in an edition of 1000 signed and numbered copies (an “art edition” of 100 copies is also available that includes two pigment photo prints by the photographers).

Their works of Alexander McQueen, Bjork, Rachel Weisz, as well as campaigns for Lanvin and others are a small number of the familiar works found inside Pretty Much Everything. Published by Taschen. Available from Amazon.
