

3.

Aideen, Features Editor:

3. The Stanley Kubrick Archives, Taschen, £135.

"Exploring Kubrick's films and his creative process, through a remarkable collection of material from his archives, I saw past his timeless movies to the man himself and found myself affected as much by his determination to create lingering iconic film, as I have been by the titles themselves."

4.

Jay, Creative Director:

4. D&AD Awards 2011, Taschen, £34,99.

"The D&AD11 annual binds creativity, originality and technical excellence in design and advertising. For me, it has provided an endless source of stimulus for this issue and throughout my creative life. Its fundamental message is the necessity to push boundaries in design, showcasing anything from typographical anomalies to unconventional and innovative advertorials."