

[BOOKS] MOTEL FETISH

Taschen is releasing the second edition of erotic photographer Chas Ray Krider's Motel Fetish. The first edition has been long out of print and includes photographs in the vein of 1950s erotic set in classic seedy motels. Editor Eric Kroll says, "A number of years ago I began to see distinctive layouts in Hustler's Leg World that got me nervous. The photographs were that good. Whoever it was had style and made the women his women. Krider women. Women I began to desire on a monthly basis. In the world of professional golf there is an expression 'the world's greatest golfer not to win a major tournament. Chas Ray Krider was the world's greatest erotic photographer not to have a book.'" The new edition hits bookstores this June.
