

Charting history

Global [BOOK]

Art historian Sandra Rendgen and art director Julius Wiedemann have compiled a comprehensive survey of our increasing reliance on infographics to disseminate information. Taking in 200 projects from journalism to education, the hefty hardback also charts the history of infographics and illustration through four dense but fascinating essays. — HM

taschen.com

